Dear Sports/News Editor:

You are cordially invited by the Korean Academy of Taekwondo to attend the 2011 Lone Wolf Classic martial arts tournament. This tournament is special in that we will have numerous competitors from all over Colorado showcasing their skills in many different martial arts.

We have some of the best competitors in Colorado participating in the exciting events that we are running this year. Join us on October 22nd to witness the impressive competition in grappling, Olympic style sparring, board breaking, creative forms and more.

This tournament is an outstanding opportunity for martial art competitors throughout Colorado from three year olds to sixty year olds, novices to instructors to compete in their own disciplines and others for awesome individual medals and grand champion swords

The Press Pass will give you and your team free entry and access to the competition floor. (Please Email scottg@kattaekwondo.com with your credentials and address to obtain a press pass)

We hope that you can join us at Mountain View High School on Saturday, September 25th throughout the day to participate in this exciting event.

More information can be found at the tournament web site:
